Last updated: 12.11.2024

This Privacy Policy is developed by Thea Technology, the company established under the laws of Singapore. Thea Technology is referred here as «Administration», «we», «us» or «Website» and “you” or “your” means you as a user of our website.

The following Privacy policy governs your access to and use of the <https://thea.ai>, including any content, functionality, and services offered through them. We take our obligation to safeguard personal information about our clients seriously.

By using this website, you agree to be bound by the terms of this Policy. We review it from time to time and reserve the right, at our discretion, to amend this Notice at any time without any notice other than posting the amended Policy on Our website. Amendments to our Privacy Policy will take effect immediately once posted on our website. Your continued use of our services following the posting of an amended Privacy Policy will be deemed as acceptance of those amendments.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you keep up-to-date with the current Privacy Policy. You should review this page periodically so that you are updated on any changes to the Notice.

1. The types of personal data we collect

We collect and process the following data: Personal identifiers name, e-mail address.

2. How we collect Personal Information

We will collect personal information only according to lawful and fair means. We collect your personal information directly from you unless it is unreasonable or impracticable to do so. We will not collect more data than it is necessary for us to provide our services and comply with applicable laws. We may collect this information when you: access or use our website; use our products and services; contact us directly via any media including SMS, MMS, instant messaging, email, social media platforms, provide feedback through our website/app feedback links; and Personal information may also be collected by cookies when you use our website.

3. Why do we collect, hold, use and disclose personal information

Any of the information we collect from you may be used in one of the following ways:

- › To personalize your experience (your information helps us to better respond to your individual needs);
- › To improve our website (we continually strive to improve our website offerings based on the information and feedback we receive from you);
- › To improve customer service (your information helps us to more effectively respond to your customer service requests and support needs);
- › To administer a contest, promotion, survey or other site feature;
- › To send periodic emails.

4. Personal data collected by third parties

We may share the information that we collect, both personal and non-personal, with third parties such as advertisers, contest sponsors, promotional and marketing partners, and others who provide our content or whose products or services we think may interest you. We may also share it with our current and future affiliated companies and business partners, and if we are involved in a merger, asset sale or other business reorganization, we may also share or transfer your personal and non-personal information to our successors-in-interest.

We may engage trusted third party service providers to perform functions and provide services to us, such as hosting and maintaining our servers and the website, database storage and management, e-mail management, storage marketing, credit card processing, customer service and fulfilling orders for products and services you may purchase through the website. We will likely share your personal information, and possibly some non-personal information, with these third parties to enable them to perform these services for us and for you.

We may share portions of our log file data, including IP addresses, for analytics purposes with third parties such as web analytics partners, application developers, and ad networks. If your IP address is shared, it may be used to estimate general location and other technographics such as connection speed, whether you have visited the website in a shared location, and type of the device used to visit the website. They may aggregate information about our advertising and what you see on the website and then provide auditing, research and reporting for us and our advertisers. We may also disclose personal and non-personal information about you to government or law enforcement officials or private parties as we, in our sole discretion, believe necessary or appropriate in order to respond to claims, legal process (including subpoenas), to protect our rights and interests or those of a third party, the safety of the public or any person, to prevent or stop any illegal, unethical, or legally actionable activity, or to otherwise comply with applicable court orders, laws, rules and regulations.

5. What are your rights?

The rights mentioned in this paragraph apply to all users visiting our website, and specifically to users from the European Union.. You have the following rights regarding the processing of your personal data, given to you through the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR):

The right to be informed You have a right to be informed about how your personal data is processed in a concise, transparent, intelligible, and easily accessible manner, written in clear and plain language, that is free of charge. This is the purpose of this Privacy Notice.

The right of access You have the right to obtain confirmation that your data is being processed and to have access to that personal data.

The right to rectification You have the right to have your personal data rectified if it is incorrect or incomplete and we must notify any third parties that we have shared your data to do the same.

The right to erasure You have a “right to be forgotten”, or to have your personal data erased and to prevent processing. The right is not absolute and in certain circumstances, this may not be possible (for example where we have to keep your personal data for legal or regulatory reasons). We must notify any third parties that have been shared your data of your request.

The right to restrict processing You have the right to ‘block’ or suppress the processing of your personal data. This does not stop the storing of your personal data, as it may be required to restrict processing in the future. We must notify any third parties that have shared your data of your request.

The right to data portability You have the right to obtain and reuse your personal data for your own purposes across different services in a safe and secure way, without hindrance to usability.

The right to object You have the right to object to processing based on legitimate interests or the performance of a task in the public interest/exercise of official authority (including profiling); direct marketing (including profiling); and processing for purposes of scientific/historical research and statistics.

Rights in relation to automated decision-making and profiling You have a right to object to automated decision-making, to express your point of view, ask for human intervention, and to be provided with an explanation of the decision with your option to challenge it.

The right to withdraw consent If you have given us explicit consent to process your personal data you have a right to withdraw that consent at any time, including but not limited to the removal of consent to be contacted for marketing purposes.

The right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority You have the right to lodge a complaint with us directly and / or with a supervisory authority. You can find their contact details info@gamingcontrolanjouan.org

6. Personal Data retention

Your information is held on secured servers. We may also store personal information in telephone recordings and in hard copy or paper files. Our employees, agents, and contractors are required to maintain the confidentiality of all personal information. We understand the importance of security and the techniques needed to secure information. We store all of the Personal Information we receive directly from you in a protected database residing within our secure network, behind active state-of-the-art firewall software. Moreover, we do not store or process credentials of payment cards. The amount of time we hold your information depends on the reason it was provided. Your data will not be kept indefinitely and will only be kept for as long as is required for legitimate business reasons (for example to provide you with our Services or for the other reasons we explained above) and in order for us to comply with our legal and regulatory obligations. The personal information we receive when you make an application (whether on our website or which comes to us via one of the websites of our affiliates) is kept for a minimum of 5 years, which will commence at the end of the relationship. We are required to do so to ensure that if any disputes or complaints are raised, we have your information to enable us to address the complaints or disputes. If you request that we do not contact you for advertising and marketing reasons, we will need to keep your information as this would reflect your preferences. To request details relating to your personal data retention, please use the following email address: contact@thea.ai

7. Overseas transfer of personal information

There may be instances where we may be required to send your personal information overseas or collect personal information from overseas, including: where you have asked us to do so; when we have outsourced a business activity or function to an overseas provider with whom we have a contractual arrangement; or where we are required or authorized by law to do so. We may disclose your personal information to entities located outside your country of residence, including the following: external service providers.

8. Unsolicited personal information

Where we receive unsolicited personal information, we will determine whether or not it would have been permissible to collect that personal information if it had been solicited. If we determine that collection would not have been permissible, to the extent permitted by law, we will destroy or de-identify that personal information as soon as practicable.

9. Non-Personal Information

Like most websites, we may collect non-personal information from your use of our websites in order to assist with the administration of our websites, to track site usage, and to enhance your user experience. Once logged in your IP address is tracked against your user ID for the purposes of preventing fraud, identifying improper activity connected with the use of our products and services, and creating an audit trail. We collect and store non-personal information that we collect through cookies, log files, or web beacons to create a profile of our users. A profile is stored information that we keep on individual users that detail their viewing preferences. This profile is used to tailor a user's visit to Our site and to direct pertinent marketing promotions to users.

10. Modification of this Privacy Notice

This Privacy Notice supersedes any previous disclosures we have provided regarding our information practices for the Services. We reserve the right to modify, alter, or update this Privacy Notice at any time, and any such changes will become effective when we post the revised Privacy Notice. We will make reasonable efforts to notify you of material changes to our processing activities and/or this Privacy Notice, such as by posting a notice on the Services or sending you an email. By continuing to use the Services after we have posted a revised Privacy Notice, you acknowledge and accept the updated Privacy Notice.

11. Applicability

This Privacy Notice is subject to the Terms of Service that governs your use of the Services. It applies to all information provided or accessed through the Services, regardless of the means used. However, this Privacy Notice does not cover information collected by third-party services, applications, or advertisements associated with or linked to the Services. The collection or receipt of your information by such third parties is governed by their own privacy policies, statements, and practices. We are not responsible or liable for any third party's compliance with their privacy policies.

12. Complaints

If you have a complaint relating to how we handle personal information, please contact our support at contact@thea.ai. You can exercise your rights specified in the "What are your rights?" section by sending a request to the following email address contact@thea.ai
